Thought for March 2018

Going for Gold!

Having watched the recent Winter Olympics, I was struck by the courage and sheer resilience of some of the competitors. The British Ice Dance duo had undergone some tough times when Penny Coomes shattered her kneecap in training. Watching some of the footage from her rehab showed how grueling and painful the road to recovery is. Watching her dance in this Olympics (after what many would consider a career-ending injury) was a joy and she showed how emotional she was afterwards.

Lent is a bit like that for us. It is a time of spiritual stock-taking when we may discover that we need to put things right, and re-discover our resilience. We are encouraged to give up things in order to develop our spiritual muscles, or start to do things that put us on the right path.

During Lent we look towards the Cross, when we are redeemed by God (after what the Bible describes as the Fall). We have the opportunity for our spiritual rehabilitation - however painful and grueling. We are encouraged to set our sights on heavenly goals.

As we are exhorted in the Book of Hebrews '...let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.'

With blessings,

Ann Woadden (Authorised Lay Minister).

* Café Church We often read in magazines and watch on television presentations about looking after our body and our mind but little is mentioned about our spiritual well-being. At our February Café Church, we explored this issue in some depth in order to understand this part of our personality. Our spiritual well-being is equally as important as our bodies and our minds because it enables us to know who we are and leads us to a deeper sense of fulfilment in life. During Lent, we ponder on the events leading up to Easter; it is a useful time for quietness and contemplation about ourselves in relation to God and to others. Then we can really rejoice with the risen Jesus at Easter time. Our March Café Church will focus on the Easter message of salvation, albeit a little early - on March 18th at 5.30pm at Holton House. Everyone is welcome.
Rev'd Jenny

* LIVES

Thousands of lives have been saved in our community, can you help us to save thousands more? Minutes matter in a medical emergency. Could you give up your spare time to respond to a 999 medical emergency – full training is available. Holton le Clay has just two responders at the present, Emma and Marie. To find out more and other ways you can help, please call 01507 525999

* Water Aid 2018

We are, once again asking for your help in raising money towards Water Aid. As a congregation we save money in a jar throughout Lent, (this year, February 14th – April 1st) and, as always extra contributions will be most welcome. It is so important for us to help support this because there are over 650 million people in the world who do not have safe drinking water, and about 2,000 children die EACH DAY from diarrhoea caused by unsafe water and poor sanitation. If you would like to donate, please contact me – Margaret tel. 590896. Thank you.

We are thinking of having an Open Gardens Day on Saturday 23rd June – if enough people are willing to open up their gardens to visitors. If you would like to know more about this, please contact Rose Hubbard on 598957 – thank you. Obviously we can only go ahead if enough people are interested.

Defibrillators

There are two community defibrillators within the village. They are located on the side of the village hall in Pinfold Lane and on the side of the Vintage Car Garage on Louth Road.

Dong Energy

There will be two representatives from Dong Energy attending the full council meeting on March 19th. Dereth Morgan and David Morgan will be giving an update on the Hornsea Projects One and Two. Residents are welcome to attend as always.

Grass Verges

Several of the grass verges in Picksley Crescent have now had block crete installed. This is to prevent the grass from being churned up by vehicles that are parked on them. The parish council office receives several complaints every day from residents who are unhappy with the state of the verges around the village. If people can refrain from parking their vehicles on the grass verges and use their driveways or just be more mindful of where they are parking, this would help to keep our village looking presentable. A complaint that was recently passed on to the police was that an ambulance was unable to access a property in Whisby Court due to the careless parking of several cars that did not leave enough room for the emergency vehicle to pass through.

NEXT MEETINGS OF THE PARISH COUNCIL:

Monday 19th March 2018

Monday 16th April 2018

Office Opening Hours:

Mon, Wednesday and Friday 10am – 12pm

Tuesday and Thursday 12.30pm – 2pm

Please note that if the clerk is on sick leave or annual leave, the chairman of the parish council can be contacted in the event of an emergency. The office number is 01472 234566 and there is a voicemail facility.

ON CUE

I wonder if you have ever had a part acting in a play? Perhaps you have done it at school, or in the church nativity play at Christmas time. If so, you will know how important it is for the actor, not just to know his lines – that is, the words which he has to say – but to know his ‘cues’ as well. The.

cues are every bit as important, because they are the signals which tell the actor when to come on stage and when to speak, so that he does it at the right time. A cue can have many forms: it may be the end of a piece of music, or simply a light played suddenly on the stage, or, more usually, just the words of another actor. But, whatever it is, you have to be ready to come in ‘on cue’. To miss a cue can throw a play into utter confusion, unless somebody else on stage is clever and quick enough to cover up the mistake.

There is a story of an actor in a play, in which an argument was taking place on stage, and, at the right moment, he had to say the words ‘Shut up!’ But, in rehearsal, he had kept coming in at the wrong time, and, before the first performance, the produce told him to wait until the argument had started, then count to sixteen, when it would be time to speak. So he did as he was told. ‘Ten – eleven – twelve , - then his knees began to shake – ‘thirteen – fourteen – fifteen – and then he rushed forward, but instead of saying ‘Shut up!’ he said ‘Sixteen!

Jesus once told a story of two men who missed their cue, and of another who recognised it. A wounded man was lying by the roadside, bruised and bleeding. Suddenly a priest came by and, although he knew immediately what he ought to do, he missed his cue and left the wounded man lying there. Then a Levite, a temple worker, came past and, when he saw the wounded man, he missed his cue too, for he kept on walking. At last, a stranger, a Samaritan, came by, and as soon as he saw the man lying there, he knelt down, tended his wounds, put the man on his donkey and even paid for his keep at a hotel, until he was better. And, having told his story, Jesus said to people who heard it, ‘Go and do likewise’ (Luke 10:37). What he was saying was that whenever we meet anyone in any kind of trouble, then that is our cue, and, as Christians, we will not miss it.
