Thought for June 2018

The Party's Over!

Well the Big Wedding is over and Harry and Meghan are safely launched on their married life together. The honeymoon period now begins as they not only forge their life together but also their role within the wider Royal duties of the Monarchy. The media have had a field day 'literally' with all the coverage both on the run up to the day but also with camera crews from around the world fawning over it all in Windsor.

Sadly the down side of the media is all the negative muck-raking that was produced about Meghan, her family and background and this no doubt will continue. All I can say is that most people would find it impossible to cope with that amount of media interest and scrutiny. But we should wish them well as we should for all those who are getting married and forming important relationships.

The Royal Wedding was a National event and all sorts of elements are arranged to mark this that go into the day and we are no different in wanting to mark our weddings but it is all too easy to get carried away these days and lose sight of the most important thing. Sadly we hear too often of eye watering amounts of money spent on a wedding for it all to fall apart soon after. As Bishop Curry enthusiastically pointed out, it is love that is the most important thing and love holds it all together. I seem to remember Jesus told us to build our houses and lives on firm foundations!

With blessings, Revd Chris Woadden.

Café Church

Our meeting this month focused on Pentecost, the birthday of the church. In the Old Testament, God spoke to people through specially chosen individuals, i.e. prophets. In the Gospels, God came to us through Jesus and after his death, resurrection and ascension we can now talk to God directly through his Holy Spirit. We explored how the Holy Spirit works in our lives for the good of others. Want to know more? Come and join us. For further details phone Rev'd Jenny on 01472 453029.

THANK YOU very much to everyone who helped and supported us in the Village Hall at our recent Flower Festival, and for all the many generous donations. We raised a net total of £1680.70, which will go towards maintaining our Church and services. Thank you all once again. Pat M. Thanks also go to all those who helped in Church by sitting or creating beautiful flower displays. SM

A LOVELY LEGEND

Somerset is one of the most beautiful parts of southwest England; and in the whole of Somerset, one of the best places to be is the little town of Glastonbury, nestling at the foot of a great hill called Glastonbury Tor. Actually, far back in history, the sea used to come in across the plane as far as Glastonbury, and the Tor was a cliff rising from the waters.

Now, Glastonbury is a peaceful town in the middle of lush countryside, with a park in the centre where you can see the ruins of the old monastery that once stood there. There's a lovely story told about Glastonbury, and it is this. In the Bible we hear about a rich and generous man called Joseph of Arimathea, who, after Jesus' death, was very kind to Mary his mother, and helped with the arrangements for Jesus' burial. Now, so the story goes, Joseph did this out of kindness, because he'd known the family a long time. He was a merchant who traded far and wide, and, when Jesus was a boy, he'd actually taken him along in one of his trading ships, which had sailed all the way from the Mediterranean to Britain, and had finally reached Glastonbury.

Because Joseph knew the family of Jesus, he had been very upset when Jesus was crucified, and had done all he could to help. He had taken away the brutal crown of thorns which the soldiers had used to taunt Jesus with, and, later on, when he had to make another trading journey to Britain, he took the crown of thorns with him, and planted it at Glastonbury.

Is the story true? Well, there's certainly a thorn tree at Glastonbury, called the Jerusalem thorn; it flowers every year just around Christmas Day, and a flowering branch is always sent off to London, as a present for the Queen. It's also true that a great poet, William Blake, wrote the hymn 'Jerusalem' with this story in mind, and that's why it begins, 'And did those feet in ancient time walk upon England's pastures green? But even if this is only a lovely legend, and Jesus in his lifetime never actually came to Britain, what is certainly true is that Jesus, through his Holy Spirit, comes to Britain now, as he does to any other place where his friends are waiting to welcome him into their hearts.

Do you think to be rich would really make you happy or do you think there are more important things in life? What do you think they are?
