Thought for November 2018

The Lion lies down with the Lamb!

I recently found myself watching a TV program 'Cold War - Hot Jets' about the Delta V force in the RAF. A deterrent needed in the post war nuclear age, by this country to make the Soviets think twice about attacking, despite us being a base for American nuclear weapons. A force of quick reaction jet heavy bombers, the most famous being the Vulcan that, in their day were more advanced and capable than either the Americans or Russian could match.

The crews that manned this force were in a constant state of readiness and isolated from society by the Official State Secrets Act, by the heavy responsibility placed on them and the knowledge that if they were ever deployed for real, it was a one-way trip to Armageddon. The world as such would have ended.

This year we celebrate both centenaries of the end of the 1st World War and the forming of the RAF. Both are important as well as salutary because the cost of war as well as peace is immense, personally, financially, spiritually and environmentally. We remember today because we owe a great debt to those who gave their lives and also those unsung heroes who have defended us and continue to do so and many who bear the unseen scars. Make no mistake, we need defending from the continuing great evils in the world that seem to rearing their heads again. Jesus says "Peace I leave you such as the world cannot give."

With blessings, Revd Chris Woadden.

Defibrillators

There are two community defibrillators within the village. They are located on the side of the village hall in Pinfold Lane and on the side of the Vintage Car Garage on Louth Road.

Daffodils

The Parish Council has purchased around 40 bags of daffodil bulbs for planting around the village. Tesco kindly donated several bags in addition to those purchased and they have now been planted on grass verges, the junior playing field and on the roundabout in Whisby Court. Thank you to those residents who took the time to collect some bags and plant them. The village will look lovely in the spring time when they are all in full bloom.

Student Council

The Parish Council is now working with the junior school to find out exactly what the children in the village would like to see happening in the area. The children attended an afternoon tea at the village hall recently and they worked hard helping to serve tea and coffee and to raise money for the Macmillan cancer charity. The 'junior council' held its first meeting on 22nd October at the parish council offices to get an insight into how meetings and agendas are set up and to learn all about the decision making process. We are looking forward to hear the childrens ideas and hope that we have some future parish councillors among them.

News

Please see the Parish Councils Facebook page for regular updates on village news. If anyone has a news story they would like to share please contact the clerk either by email or on the office number.

YOUR PARISH COUNCIL NEEDS YOU!

The Parish Council currently has three vacancies for councillors. Could YOU be a parish councillor? Would you like input into matters such as the upkeep of the village, setting the council tax precept and making consultee comments on planning applications in the village? For more information please contact the clerk to the parish council on 01472 234566 or by email at hlc.pc@btconnect.com

We are as poor as church mice! It looks as if we have a lot of money, but we have to pay £916 each month to the Diocese as our 'parish share' and have to fund our current roof repairs of approximately £15,000 ourselves, plus routine costs for heating, lighting etc so all support is very gratefully received.

Bishop Aidan of Lindisfarne heard about the intelligent and devout nun, and shortly before he died he made her abbess of a convent at Hartlepool. After a few years she founded a new monastery on the cliff-top at Whitby. It was a double monastery, where monks lived in one building and nuns lived next door. Hilda was the abbess in charge of the whole community and was a very successful and strong leader. At this time there was a quarrel going on between Christians in the south who followed Roman traditions, and Christians in the north who followed Celtic ones. A conference was called to settle the argument, and the bishops chose Whitby as their meeting place. Under Abbess Hilda's guidance the discussions went smoothly, and although she personally supported the Celtic Church, it was decided that everyone should follow the traditions of Rome and the Church of Canterbury.

Many people travelled to Whitby to be advised by Hilda: kings, princes, and bishops, and ordinary people also. They had heard of her holiness and wisdom and knew she would welcome them. It was said that all who knew her called her mother, such was her gracious godliness. She was very concerned that her monks and nuns should do some serious study of Scripture, and she insisted that priests should be properly trained for the task.

In fact, Hilda believed that everyone should be encouraged to develop their talents. She invited one of her herdsmen, Caedmon, to become a monk so that he could make use of his love for writing verse. He became the first English poet. Another of her monks became Bishop of Hexham and later Bishop of York. He is honoured today as St John of Beverly. By the time Abbess Hilda died in 680, she was loved and respected throughout the land.

St HILDA born 614
FEAST DAY : 17 NOVEMBER

When Hilda was 13, no one could have imagined how important she was going to become. She would have been very surprised herself. Hilda grew up in Northumbria and was a relative of King Edwin. When he was baptised by Bishop Paulinus of York, the whole family followed his example. Twenty years later Hilda decided to become a nun.
