Thought for May 2015 Treasures in Heaven!

Recently I had to visit Bethlehem Street area for the first time in a long while and despite the traffic, I realized it was now a thriving shopping area. I was delighted to find a prom dress shop, toyshop, cycle shop, cobbler shop etc as well as the cafés, butchers and businesses that have been there a long while.

Being a child at heart I had to look at the objects of a small boy's desire - the elegant cycles and the model trains and planes, all of which of course had a large price tag attached but at the same time were worth waiting and saving up for. Things that would last for a long-time, not were just for instant gratification.

It made me begin to think, that perhaps folk are rediscovering the value of simple things. To mend something is even better than recycling. That small is beautiful, just like the small shops starting up that had almost disappeared from the landscape. That personal service and our communities are more important than instant consumerism.

For a long time people who cycled, did it out of necessity, not being able to afford other transport but now it is noticeable as well as the increasing numbers of serious cyclists, we see an increasing number who are just saving money, getting fit and enjoying the pleasure of the journey itself, which is something you simply cannot buy. Luke 12 vs34. Now, where were my bike clips!

With blessings, Rev'd Chris Woadden.

WATER AID. Many thanks to the congregation of St. Peter's , Holton - Le - Clay who collected money in their "Jars of Change" during Lent to donate to Water Aid. Together we raised £257.81. Congratulations to you all. I sent the money on April 14th. So very soon a village in Ethiopia will have a locally manufactured rope pump (costing £250.00) which will supply them with clean water, therefore, changing their lives completely. Thank you all. MISSING A LARGE ITEM OF LAUNDRY?

On Tuesday 31st March, a very windy day, we found a large item of laundry which had blown into our garden and does not belong to our immediate neighbours. This has presumably come off a line in the Louth Road/Lindsey Drive area near the chip shop. As it looks very new, good quality and will be much missed, we would like to return it. Please contact 01472 239380.

HOLTON LE CLAY TWINNING

A group from the village once again spent 3 days at Easter staying with French families. This year featured a visit to the excellent D Day Normandy landings Museum in Caen and after a picnic lunch a couple of hours at the American War cemetery at Colleville above the D Day landing beach of Omaha. Sunday daytime was spent with our individual French families, and many took the opportunity to take us on day trips out to places such as the zoo, Le Mans, or other picturesque French villages and towns in the region. In the evening we had a dinner dance for everyone in their village hall.

Our annual get together next year is in England and the French will visit us for 3 days/nights around early April 2016.

We are always looking for new members in the Grimsby area (you don't have to live in H-L-C) so if you are interested in getting involved or would just like to find out more, ring Bill or Caroline on 590843

ANOTHER FINE MESS

The most unsuccessful hijack attempt ever made took place in 1976. On a flight across America the hijacker rose from his seat, drew a gun and took the stewardess hostage. "Take me to Detroit," he said. "We're already going to Detroit," she replied. "Oh.....good", he said, and sat down again.

Everybody gets it wrong sometimes. Perhaps we have let a friend down and she or he are not talking to us, we've failed an exam and we feel terrible, or we've let ourself down when we did something we were especially trying not to do. Feeling a failure is not very nice, and sometimes we just want to give up because we think we've blown it and there's nothing we can do.

In the Bible there is the story of one of Jesus' disciples who felt just like that. He was called Peter and he really got it wrong. He let his friends down, he let himself down and he let Jesus down. He ran away when Jesus was arrested, he denied he even knew Jesus when he thought that people might recognise him. He actually broke down and wept when he realised what a total failure he was. If we had known him we would have probably wanted nothing more to do with him.

But amazingly the Bible tells us that despite all that had happened in Peter's life, when Jesus appeared to his disciples (after he had been raised from the dead) he didn't give up on Peter and treat him like some sort of outcast. Instead he forgave him, encouraged him and even instructed him to be a leader among the first Christians. Peter put his failure behind him and became a great and courageous leader in the early church.

Even when other people give up on us, even when we feel a total failure ourselves, Christians believe that Jesus never gives up, he helps us to start again because he wants the very best for our lives.
