Thought for October 2015

All change please!

Like the Premier League changing managers when teams are relegated, the Labour party now has a new leader, Jeremy Corbyn. With all the media noise we could hardly miss it but the Lib Dems also have a new leader, Tim Farron, who conversely has hardly been mentioned. The knives were out as soon as Corbyn was persuaded to run for leader, being described as left wing but we don't hear Cameron described as right wing. Yet it has stimulated debate in what had become the same old Westminster politics as well as increasing Labour membership considerably. Whether you agree with him or not it has livened things up and offered some different perspectives.

One has to question why such a reaction to someone, who according to form is a dinosaur. Yes, we may want to question some of his stances in the past but currently the government is cosyng up to China, still a communist state, whose human rights record is very questionable to say the least. Mud slinging works both ways. So perhaps Tim Farron isn't the real threat. However, I think it is refreshing to hear someone who says what he believes, not what they think we want to hear and doesn't appear to make personal attacks on those he disagrees with. Having been on the back benches so far we will have to see. I think it will make for interesting times and certainly a different style. Perhaps our democracy was due for a shake up when so many have been disaffected from voting at all. Jesus said "Simply say yes or no." Matt 5vs 37

With blessings, Rev'd Chris Woadden.

Small charity HOST is seeking friendly people who would like to learn more about other countries and cultures and share their home life with adult international students at UK universities. Young adults from many countries would love to have a short homely break and discover the real life of this country.

Visits can be for a day, weekend, or four days at Christmas. Offering a Christmas invitation to someone who would otherwise be alone on a University campus can make a big difference. Invitations are urgently needed from volunteer hosts, no matter their age, or how far they live from a university. To find out more, or to be put in touch with your local organiser, please visit www.hostuk.org or call 020 7739 6292..

Think about foxes. Now think again. Because Jesus called King Herod a fox, and by implication, all those religious leaders in Israel's sad and long history who relied on their instinct and their cunning and their wiles to save their nation. Who put the prophets to death for simply suggesting that trusting God and doing His will and turning back to Him might be a more effective course.

So the prophets died, and, ironically, the leaders did too. For sleek and sexy and self – sufficient so often leads to slavery. Now think about chickens. That's right. Chickens. "Don't be a chicken!" your friends jeer, when you're the only one who hasn't jumped off the diving board. "Don't be a chicken!" your dad chides, when your knuckles are white on the side of the slide. Nobody wants to be a chicken. Cowardly. Cringeing. Kentucky-fried.

Think about chickens. Now think again. Because that's what Jesus hoped and prayed those prophet-killing foxes might become. Chickens. Chicks. Running towards Him like He was their mother hen. Wings outstretched. To protect. To comfort. To save.

So we can be foxes. Sleek and self-sufficient. Making our own way. Cleverly paving a path of destruction. Or we can be chickens. Running to Him. Running His way. Safe under His arms. Outstretched.

Don't be a chicken?

Don't be an idiot.

Don't be a fox.

THINKING ABOUT FOXES AND CHICKENS.

Think about foxes for a minute. That's right. Foxes. Sly as a Fox. Crazy like a Fox. Cute little heartbreaker. Foxy lady. Sleek. Sexy. Self-sufficient. FOXES.
