THANK YOU – MESSY CHURCH HARVEST

I would like to thank all who supported this event, nearly 50 people came and had a good time. There was some fresh food left over at the end, this was taken to a local charity. CW

CHRISTMAS MUSIC The choir will be singing a special piece of Christmas music to celebrate the Nativity, during the Sunday service on 7th December.

McMillan Coffee Morning

This was really well supported in our village, with a joint MERC and St Peter's Church event in the Village Hall. Many kind people brought cakes to a cake stall (raising £165), It was nice to see new people as well as the regular ones taking time and donating their produce. THANK YOU ALL VERY MUCH INDEED (from KD). Thanks are also due to all those who worked hard throughout the morning, serving coffees and running stalls and games. This event raised a magnificent total of £1,000. A second event was run by Sheila Surfleet, who would like to thank all those who helped raise £267.00.

HOST is looking for kind, friendly, hospitable people of all ages whose imaginations are caught by the idea of welcoming an international student at university here, far from his or her own family, to their home, for a day, a weekend or at Christmas. You don't need to live near a university, as students will travel for the privilege of meeting you, learning about real life in this country, and sharing their own culture. HOST is a voluntary activity which makes ambassadors for international goodwill of us all. Please see www.hostuk.org or call Mandy Talbott 01472 851084. Thank you

The Thornalley family – A Remembrance Story

'Charles Thornalley, a waggoner, and Mary Jane Jacklin, both aged 23, were married at Tetney on 16th May 1895. Living in Holton-le-Clay they produced 12 children between 1896 and 1916, of whom only one died in infancy – Agnes, aged 1 year. Charles' brother, William, married Charlotte Ellen Jacklin and they produced one son, Reginald, 1900, also in Holton-le-Clay (and a daughter much later). The brothers were two of a family of seven, the last of whom, Samuel, was born in Holton-le-Clay in 1888, but, sadly he died aged only 8 years in 1897, the same year as the death of his nearest sibling, his sister Betsy, who was 16. Does anyone know if there was an influenza epidemic that year? These two youngsters are commemorated on a headstone in the churchyard – looking half left from the main door of the Church, sheltered by trees, and inscribed with a heartwarming verse.

In 1914, of course, the Great War started and many thousands of young men immediately volunteered for service in the Army, including the three oldest Thornalley brothers of Charles and Mary's family. Their cousin Reginald joined up later, as he was only 14 at the start of the conflict. The three brothers must have left home, heading for Lincoln, either together or within a few days of each other's departures, because after basic training in the 5th Lincolns Regiment, their names appeared together on an embarkation list for France.

A sharp-eyed officer thought this looked like a set of triplets and might be good for recruiting purposes if publicised. So they were called in for interview. There it was discovered that William was aged 18, Harold was 17, and Jack (my father) was 16. Was anyone in authority outraged? Were the youngsters sent home in disgrace? Not likely! William was sent on an active posting, while the other two were held in 'safe' postings until they reached age 18. Jack, for example, became an officer's batman, polishing shoes, brushing uniforms and, no doubt, performing many other menial tasks. He spent some time in Ireland, where trouble was brewing, but he was shipped to France when old enough. Harold was wounded on 17th September 1915, which must have been quite soon after his arrival in France after his 18th birthday. Unlike so many of his fellow recruits, he managed to survive, as did William and Jack – or I wouldn't be writing this!

All four Thornalleys, along with 35 others, are listed on Holton-le-Clay's Roll of Honour, which is hanging on the North Wall of the Church Tower. Brian Thornally 23.10.2013

The following prayer was found during a visit to East Kirkby to see the Three Lancasters, on the wall of the chapel:

Good Morning I am God. Today I will be handling all of your problems. Please remember that I do not need your help. If the devil happens to deliver a situation to you that you cannot handle, DO NOT attempt to resolve it. Kindly put it in the SFJTD (something for Jesus to do) box. It will be addressed in MY time, not yours. Once the matter is placed into the box, do not hold onto it or attempt to remove it. Holding on or removal will delay the resolution of your problem. If it is a situation that you think you are capable of handling, please consult me in prayer to be sure that it is the proper resolution. Because I do not sleep nor do I slumber, there is no need for you to lose any sleep. Rest my child. If you need to contact me, I am only a prayer away.
